State Apparatus Institutions The state with its powerful institutions military police judiciary and administrative bodies plays a critical role in facilitating genocide These institutions provide the logistical infrastructure resources and legal cover or lack thereof necessary for mass violence This is the hardware of the system providing the tools and means for carrying out the violence

Perpetrators Bystanders The humanware comprises the individuals directly involved in the violence perpetrators and those who witness it but choose not to intervene bystanders Understanding the motivations pressures and psychological dynamics that lead individuals to participate in or passively accept genocide is crucial Milgram's obedience experiments offer a chilling analogy demonstrating how ordinary individuals can inflict harm under the pressure of authority

SocioEconomic Conditions Economic hardship social inequality and political instability can create a fertile ground for the emergence of genocidal ideologies and the mobilization of violence These conditions create an environment ripe for scapegoating and the exploitation of existing tensions Think of this as the environmental context in which the system operates

International Context Global Actors The international community's response or lack thereof significantly impacts the trajectory of genocidal violence International institutions states and nongovernmental organizations can either help prevent or exacerbate the violence through their actions or inaction This represents the external influences affecting the system
